Dear Sir:

Following the instructions of your letter dated 11/24/2004, I have amended the original patent application. No new material has been added. Specifically, in accordance with your instruction 1.(h), detail explanations on the invention are presented together with actual examples. The missing Figure 2 is submitted. Figure 1 and Figure 2 are now presented on two separate pages following the claims page.

I think you very much for the clear and precise instructions. Should there be any other questions, please let me be aware, and I will try to comply as much as possible.

Sincerely yours,

Chang P. Liu
